End of Another Season

By Laura Vazquez

With warmer temperatures on the rise, we will soon begin to see the departure of many members aka Snowbirds who will return to their homes for the summer. And after a long hiatus we welcomed our Canadian friends back. Some will return next winter, but for others this is their final good-bye. To you we extend a warm "Thank You" for gracing us with your amazing talents. You will be missed.

With it, comes another closure of The Artisans' Guild Wellton-Mohawk season. This past season we successfully had three exhibitions: Art Paths, Joe Reyes Memorial, & Pioneer Art Show with many members working tirelessly to ensure a successful season. Our deepest gratitude goes out to the many local businesses, individual donors, and tireless volunteers for making this past season a resounding success. Special acknowledgement goes to our community partners as well.

We look forward to seeing you again next season beginning in November!
